Sarah's Key* @ the Hampton Memorial Library in Easley

Join the Easley Book Discussion group on Tuesday, February 28 at 7pm at the Hampton Memorial Library to discuss Sarah's Key by Tatiana de Rosnay.

While researching the Vel'd'Hiv', a Nazi decreed raid and mass arrest in Paris, a journalist named Julia stumbles upon a trail of long hidden family secrets. As her research continues, Julia realizes that she is connected to a young girl named Sarah who was brutally arrested during the raid. As she probes Sarah's past, Julia begins to question her own place in France, and to reevaluate her marriage and her life.

"Sarah's Key unlocks the star crossed, heart thumping story of an American journalist in Paris and the 60-year-old secret that could destroy her marriage. This book will stay on your mind long after it's back on the shelf."

—Risa Miller, author of Welcome to Heavenly Heights

The Easley Book Discussion group meets regularly on the 4th Tuesday of each month at 7pm and actively welcomes new members. Call or stop by any of the library locations to reserve a copy of Sarah's Key or visit www.pickens.lib.sc.us for more details.
