Free Legal Clinics @ Your Library!

Do you need legal advice or just want to speak with a lawyer and have your legal questions answered? If so, then come to the library! The South Carolina Bar Pro Bono Program will hold a series of free legal clinics at the Village Branch Library in Pickens from 6:00 to 7:30 pm on Thursdays, September 2, 23, and October 14. A local attorney will lecture and lead a question and answer session on a variety of topics.

On September 2 come learn about Criminal Law with speaker Daniel E. Hunt, Esq. On September 23, the topic will be Workers' Compensation with speaker James C. Alexander, Esq. And on October 14, Wills, Estates, and Probates will be discussed by James M. Robinson, Esq.

For more information, please call the Village Branch at 898-5747 or email reference@pickens.lib.sc.us.
