

Pickens County Museum

Elementary Level

History Mystery!

See if you can find the answer and decide if the statement is True or False.

1. True False Prehistoric carvings on rock, or Petroglyphs have been found in Pickens County.
2. True False The flat iron in the pioneer cabin was heated by electricity.
3. True False John C. Calhoun was a very important South Carolinian. He served as Vice President of the United States, Secretary of War, and in the House of Representative on the state and national level.
4. True False Clemson University was named for Thomas Orange Clemson.
5. True False General Andrew Pickens, a Christian, Patriot and a Gentleman served in the American Revolutionary War. This County is named for him.
6. True False During the early 20th Century, a lady would dress in a black dress for 3 days to show that a member of her family had died.
7. True False During financially hard times, dresses and shirts could be made from flour sacks.
8. True False In early schools, children carried lunch pails because they did not like the lunches the cafeteria (or lunch room) served.
9. True False Pickens County is unique that there are two Congressional Medal of Honor winners.
10. True False There are military displays in the Museum from the American Revolution, the War Between the States, World War I, World War II, Korean Conflict, Vietnam War and the War in Iraq.
11. True False The oldest part of this Museum was built in 1902 as a jail.

On the back, write a paragraph about your visit to the Pickens County Museum of Art and History.

Visit www.co.pickens.sc.us/culturalcommission to find out about upcoming Museum events and the Hagood Mill.

Pickens County Museum

Elementary Level

History Mystery!

ANSWER SHEET

1. True ~~False~~ Prehistoric carvings on rock, or Petroglyphs have been found in Pickens County.
2. ~~True~~ False The flat iron in the pioneer cabin was heated by electricity.
3. True ~~False~~ John C. Calhoun was a very important South Carolinian. He served as Vice President of the United States, Secretary of War, and in the House of Representative on the state and national level.
4. ~~True~~ False Clemson University was named for Thomas Orange Clemson.
5. True ~~False~~ General Andrew Pickens, a Christian, Patriot and a Gentleman served in the American Revolutionary War. This County is named for him.
6. True ~~False~~ During the early 20th Century, a lady would dress in a black dress for 3 days to show that a member of her family had died.
7. True ~~False~~ During financially hard times, dresses and shirts could be made from flour sacks.
8. ~~True~~ False In early schools, children carried lunch pails because they did not like the lunches the cafeteria (or lunch room) served.
9. ~~True~~ False Pickens County is unique that there are two Congressional Medal of Honor winners.
10. True ~~False~~ There are military displays in the Museum from the American Revolution, the War Between the States, World War I, World War II, Korean Conflict, Vietnam War and the War in Iraq.
11. True ~~False~~ The oldest part of this Museum was built in 1902 as a jail.

On the back, write a paragraph about your visit to the Pickens County Museum of Art and History.