Discuss Our Souls at Night @ Your Library!

Join the Pickens Book Club on Tuesday, July 18th at 10am to discuss Our Souls at Night by Kent Haruf.

Years after her husband's death, Addie Moore pays an unexpected visit to her aging widower neighbor, Louis Waters. They embark on an unlikely friendship in order to soothe their loneliness. Even though their deepening friendship is tested by small town gossip and meddling family members, their perseverance proves that you're never too old to take risks and find love.

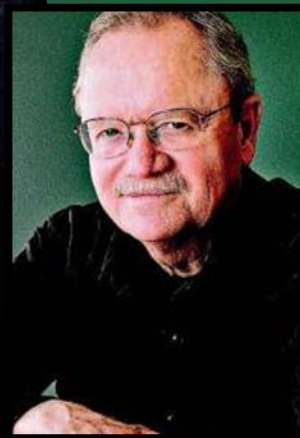

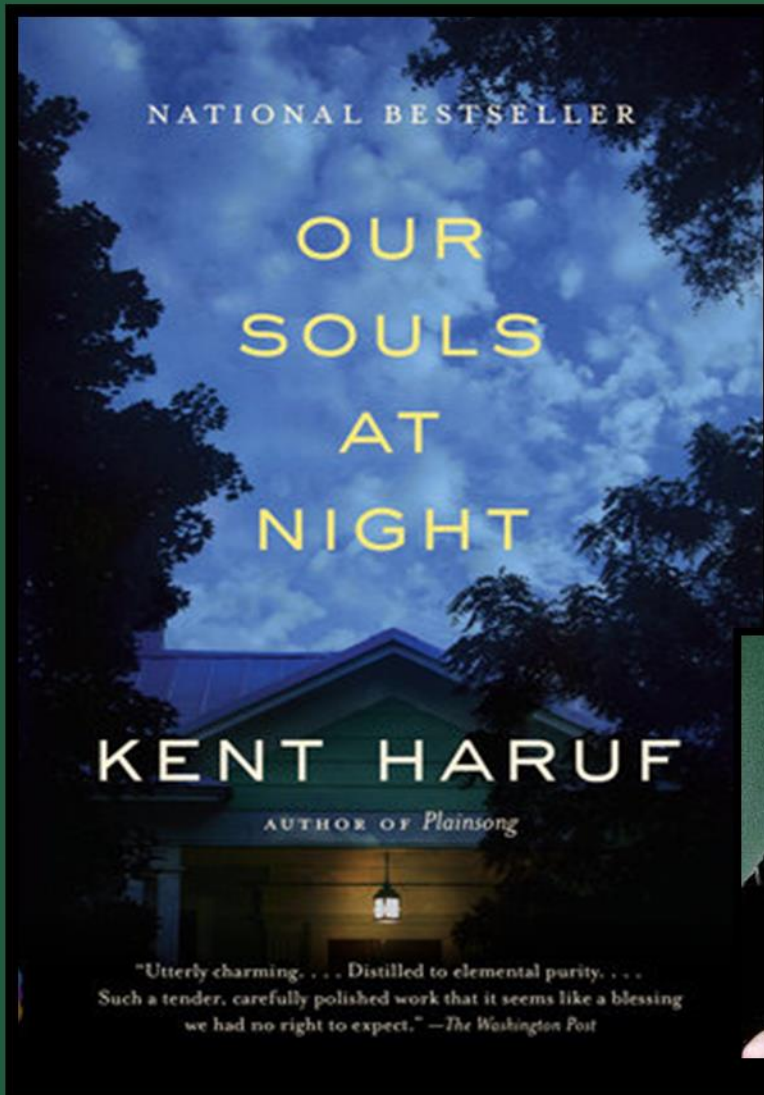

"Lateness—and second chances—have always been a theme for Haruf. But here, in a book about love and the aftermath of grief, in his final hours, he has produced his most intense expression of that yet. . . . Packed into less than 200 pages are all the issues late life provokes." —John Freeman, The Boston Globe

The Pickens Book Club meets regularly on the third Tuesday of each month at 10am. It is free to join and new members are always welcome. For more information, please call the library at 898-5747.
